PREFACE.

WHEN the first volume of the Dodge Family was published in 1894, it did not seem at all likely that so much additional material could be readily collected, or that I should be inclined to pursue the work for four additional years. Feeling inclined to visit New England in 1895 for another purpose, I improved the opportunity to examine public records of Vermont and New Hampshire, including many deeds in Washington county, Vt., in Sullivan and Cheshire and Rockingham counties, N. H., and the probate records in the same counties. By attending the Dodge Reunion in Worcester in 1896, some further researches of the same kind were made, and they showed the need of further and still more comprehensive examination of public records in northeastern Ohio, central N. Y., and some counties in New England, hence in 1897 I made further researches in records of deeds and of estates in the following counties: in Lake and Ashtabula counties, Ohio; in Genesee, Ontario, Cayuga, Onondaga, Oneida, Herkimer, Fulton, Montgomery, Saratoga, Rensselaer and Albany counties, N. Y.; in Berkshire, Hampden, Hampshire, Franklin, Worcester and Middlesex counties in Massachusetts; and in Cheshire and Rockingham counties in New Hampshire.

I have also copied from the Revolutionary Pension Rolls of the United States, the Dodge pensioners; from the archives of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, the record of the Revolutionary services of the Dodges, and their services in the colonial wars so far as they are accessible. This enables me to present in tabular form:

- I. The roll of Dodge pensioners for Revolutionary services.
- II. The long roll of Dodges who served in the Revolutionary war.
- III. The roll of Dodges who served in the colonial wars, and in a large majority of cases to affix the appropriate number to identify the individual.

This large addition of new material has required several months' labor to properly digest it, and has increased the size of the Second Part much beyond the original design. It has greatly increased its value and exhibits the record of the Dodges as one of the most creditable for their patriotic and other public services.

REPORT

DODGE REUNION.

Since the reunion at Salem, Mass., in 1879, it has been discovered that the Dodge Family in the United States consists of at least two main branches, the earlier and larger one having descended from the brothers, William and Richard, who settled in what is now Beverly, Mass., in 1629 and 1638, and the smaller one from Tristram Dodge who settled on Block Island in 1661. The relationship between the two branches remains to be discovered.

The genealogy of the Dodge Family of Essex county, Mass., having been traced out quite fully in its earlier generations, so that a large number of the descendants have the means of knowing their exact relationship to a great number of others, it has been proposed that all who bear our name or are connected with us by ties of kindred, and are interested in our large and influential family should meet together in Horticultural Hall, Worcester, Mass., Wednesday, September 23rd, 1896, at 10 A. M., for a social reunion, to increase our personal acquaintance, to listen to such addresses and papers as may be prepared for the occasion and to enlarge and perfect the history of the family which has been so well begun.

An excursion to Beverly and Wenham on the 24th, or other diversion for social intercourse, as different groups may wish, may be arranged at the reunion.

The undersigned, believing that such a reunion would be an occasion of great interest, would cordially invite all who favor the above proposal to co-operate with us in the effort to bring together a large and worthy assembly of the representatives of one of the earliest families of New England.

Please notify all others within your knowledge who are likely to be interested in the proposed reunion and endeavor to prepare in writing whatever facts of family history may properly be published in connection with a memorial of the meeting. It will much contribute to the success of the meeting if all those from a distance will kindly signify their purpose to attend by addressing Mr. R. B. Dodge, Jr., Worcester, Mass. Worcester, Mass., April 30, 1896.

Rufus B. Dodge, Jr., Worcester, Mass.
 Benjamin J. Dodge, Worcester, Mass.
 Reuben R. Dodge, Wilkinsonville, Mass.
 G. M. Dodge, Council Bluffs, Iowa.
 Theodore A. Dodge, Brookline, Mass.
 James Hale Dodge, Boston, Mass.
 Joseph T. Dodge, Madison, Wis.

The exercises were to have begun at 10:30 A. M., but the social attractions seemed to be so strong that the members tarried in the library room until 11 o'clock before entering the main hall, when Hon. Rufus B. Dodge, Jr., called the meeting to order and invited Rev. John E. Dodge of Lake View church, Worcester, to offer prayer. The following record of proceedings is taken from the reports given by the Daily Spy, Daily Gazette and Daily Telegram, which kindly published quite full details of the meeting:

HON. RUFUS B. DODGE, JR., in his address of welcome, said that the first reunion of the Dodge family was held in 1879, and then mentioned how carefully the ancestral records had been prepared. The period of modern family associations was begun about this time and here originated the genealogy of the Dodge family, later compiled by Joseph T. Dodge of Madison, Wis. To clear up some of the obscurities of the family records is the object of this reunion. The Dodge family is the best family, and should therefore meet in the best city in the country. Mr. Dodge then spoke of the attractions of the city of Worcester. The family can claim from the fighting Peter Dodge a great degree of loyalty, and an honest and honorable ancestry. He hoped that the future Dodes would maintain the same good relations as the present family. He welcomed all the visitors as members of one great family.

Mr. Dodge then introduced to the meeting JOSEPH T. DODGE of Madison, Wis., the compiler of the Genealogy of the Dodge Family, whom he called upon to preside. Being thus called unexpectedly, the historian of the family in accepting the duty, stated "that he was deeply sensible of the honor to which he was called as chairman on this pleasant occasion. He would have much preferred that some man of national reputation should have filled this position but he would do the best he could. In our efforts to arrange for a chairman we have been met by excessive modesty, hence I suppose our friend thought best to cut the gordian knot by springing this surprise so undesirable to myself.

"Having invited your attention to our family history by means of a book of 450 pages, it is scarcely to be supposed that I can add in the brief space of a few minutes any appreciable amount to the detailed information contained in that book. There are probably many here who were at our Salem meeting in 1879. There is this difference in the two occasions. Those who assembled there had little more than the name of Dodge as a bond of union. To-day, however, most of those present know exactly their line of descent from their English ancestors, and consequently how nearly or remotely they are related to one another.

"In studying the history of the family, I find a few general facts, which are not contained in my book. I find that the Dodges were all farmers for three generations; in the fourth generation they were more or less mechanics; in the fifth and sixth there were a few preachers and many mechanics; in the seventh, eighth and ninth, many physicians, mechanics tradesmen, and preachers. For moral character, the Dodge family is above the average. There were many abolitionists; a few prohibitionists, and the family is conspicuous for its practical sense. As to wealth, the family is neither in poverty nor riches."

Benjamin J. Dodge of Worcester spoke a few words upon the Dodge coat of arms that occupied a conspicuous place in the rear of the platform. In addition to the coat of arms there appears to have been a banner borne by Peter Dodge of Podenhugh and barony of Coldingham in the last battles fought by Edward I. of England in 1306-7, a representation of which was shown in the decorations of the house of Thomas H. Dodge on the occasion of the dedication of the Odd Fellows' home here.

Reuben R. Dodge of Wilkinsons ville, who was instrumental in projecting the history of the Rawson family, also the history of Sutton, and who for over 50 years has been engaged in collecting material for the Dodge family, was one of the committee to call this meeting. He projected the Dodge meeting in Salem in 1879, when many distinguished members of that family were present. He has assisted Joseph T. Dodge to prepare his work on the family history. R. R. Dodge told of his love for the Dodge family and related how he searched the records to find the history of the Dodge family.

Charles Levi Woodbury of Boston, who was to speak, was unavoidably detained.

Martin Dodge of Cleveland, a member of the legislature of Ohio, said that he came here to learn of his ancestry not to talk. He looked upon this place as being the fountain-head of the family. He then gave a sketch of his family tree. His mother was a Canfield, and that family had held annual meetings in Oneida county, New York, for 17 years. He heartily believed in family reunions.

Rufus B. Dodge, Sr., of Charlton, spoke a few words expressing his deep interest in the family gathering. He said that while the Dodges he had known were not as a rule, wealthy, they were active and industrious, and none as far as he knew had ever been in the poor-house.

Thomas H. Dodge of this city, who has done so much to assist in a financial way the preparation of the Dodge Genealogy, being called on, spoke a few words in regard to the family. He said they were dignified and feel the responsibility they bear. The family is not inclined to frivolity; they look at things in a true light. The parents extend every opportunity to give their children the best that they can to prepare them to take up the burdens of life. The family is marked by a strong character. Consideration for others is another characteristic. This is an important point in the character of man or woman. They are industrious, and you will find when a member is blessed with means he has a fellow-feeling for those about them. These traits are among those on which a true government rests.

Hon. E. P. Dodge, late mayor of Newburyport, who has been in the shoe business for 29 years, spoke a few words, in which he expressed his pleasure at being present. He heartily approved of the idea of issuing a second part of the Dodge family book.

The meeting adjourned for the afternoon at 12:45. Dinner was served in the upper hall.

Immediately after the dinner was over a company of over sixty persons assembled in front of the First Universalist church and had a group picture taken which will be a souvenir of special value to all who were there present.

At the opening of the afternoon session, Joseph T. Dodge said that, inasmuch as many persons had signified their interest in Beverly, which was the home of William and Richard Dodge, he suggested that a visit be made to that historic town, where the Dodge mansion might be seen. He desired that a party leave Boston for Salem at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and thence to Beverly. Nine persons signified their intention of going, and the number was considerably increased later.

Cyrus Asa Dodge of Syracuse, N. Y., emphasized the necessity for more work and more research in compiling the second part of the family record.

Ezra Dodge Hines of Salem spoke of the great value of such gatherings, and gave a short sketch of Richard Dodge.

He was a quiet man and had strong religious tendencies, and, on coming to this country, united with the church at Beverly. He was deeply interested in education, and was one of the greatest contributors of his town to Harvard College. William, his brother, was of a strong character.

Dr. John S. Dodge of Pittsburg, Pa., said his purpose in coming here was for sociability. He came to learn, rather than to communicate. He said that he had lost the link of his ancestry and he had come here to find it.

Samuel R. Dodge of Worcester, who said he was a descendant of the Block Island people, said a traveling man from Maine had lately called on him and asked if he could trace the Dodge family back. The man's mother was anxious to learn some early history.

"I told him I could trace the Dodge family back to Noah, and I can. The family can be traced through the Abraham family, through the Hebrews and on down through all these centuries. My ancestors in this country settled on Block Island some time previous to 1650. We have been isolated on Block Island, but have intermarried and inbred so much that I claim to be pretty much a pure Dodge." (Laughter and applause.)

James Hale Dodge, city auditor of Boston, spoke of the value of securing the names of Dodges who served in the Revolution.

Interesting remarks were also made by Henry M. Dodge of Post Mills, Vt.; Chester W. Dodge of Rutland, Mass.; Cyrus M. Dodge of Manchester, Mass.; Mrs. Sarah Dodge Jones of Keene, N. H., and others.

Reference to the death of Miss Mary Abigail Dodge (Gail Hamilton) was made by the chairman and attention was called to the article in regard to Miss Dodge in Harper's Bazar of Aug. 29, 1896.

The election of officers completed the day's work, and resulted as follows: President, Joseph T. Dodge of Madison, Wis.; vice president, R. B. Dodge, Jr., of Worcester; secretary and treasurer, Ezra Dodge Hines of Danvers, Mass.

It was voted to have a secretary in every state of the union as far as possible and to do everything to build up the organization. The officers will select an executive committee and later prepare a constitution and by-laws. Doubtless some fixed dues will be decided upon.

The state secretaries as far as selected are as follows: Henry Dodge of Manchester; H. M. Dodge of Post Mills, Vt.; Chester W. Dodge of Rutland, Mass.; Dr. J. S. Dodge of Pittsburg, Pa.; Cyrus Dodge of Syracuse, N. Y.; Hon. Martin Dodge of Cleveland, Ohio; Benjamin W. Dodge of New York city.

INTRODUCTION.

THE INHERITED RIGHT TO BEAR COAT ARMOR IN AMERICA.

“Most conclusive of all the mass of proof of the American right to use coat armor is set forth in these words of Washington: ‘It is far from my design to intimate any opinion that heraldry, Coat-armor, &c., might not be rendered conducive to public and private use with us, or that they can have any tendency unfriendly to the purest spirit of republicanism. On the contrary, a different conclusion is deducible from the practice of Congress and the states, all of which have established some kind of Armorial devices to authenticate their official instruments.’—Maxims of George Washington &c. J. F. Shroeder, D. D., p. 22.

“Many seals are now in possession of descendants, and give substantial proof of the inheritance of coat-armor. The Colonial governors all used arms, as shown by the seals of Sir Wm. Phipps and many others, of which copies are extant.

“General Washington had two seal forms as well as the book plate. Heraldry, though applied to coat-armor, is in truth a term for the work of the herald, and is much more than blazoning and marshalling armes. The coat-of-armes is literally a dignified trade mark, in the genealogical sense, or badge of the name and family to which it pretends. It is useful for the identification of persons and property, and is more to be relied on in research than the family names, which, by reason of variations in spelling in old records, etc., are difficult to follow, while the accuracy of a coat-of armes can always be relied on. It shows connection, descent and important marriages—being the most useful guide to historians, genealogists and pedigree compilers. It began seven hundred years ago as an aid to the identification of persons, and to-day it exists exactly in the same sense. The use of heraldic bearings is not indicative of rank or title. It is, and always has been, the distinction of a house, whether commoners, gentles or nobles. In all countries this is true to-day, and in them all men, if gentlemen—as we in America understand the term—are entitled to this name distinction, for legal as well as social purposes. This is equally true of the helmet, crest, mantle, or flourish and motto.

“In this country we preach that all men are equal, and long before that doctrine was accepted politically, coat-armor made all men above servants equal. There is absolutely no class or distinction in heraldic bearings, all coat-armor is complete, finished and equal, one shield to another, the armes of a king are no more, no less, and no better than those of the poorest commoner in the kingdom.

“In the English roll of armes to-day there are some sixty six thousand blazonings. Of these less than three thousand are in the peerage and baronetage, the others are in the gentry or people of England.

“Again, we find coat-armor in the earliest times was closely connected with the bearing of surnames, the one begetting the other. Not until after the 13th century were surnames established, and almost, if not quite at the same time, heraldry became a regulated usage. So armes and surnames in Europe have been synonymous for centuries. For a man without armor—that is, not bearing coat-armor—it was unnecessary to have a surname, as he was either a vassal, servitor, retainer or peasant. When he had gained or assumed a surname the possession of coat-armor soon followed. As to the right of inheriting a name that is so established as to be understood and never disputed. A grant of coat-armor indicates an attachment to name, and implies that it is a hereditament—never going with a title or estate, but strictly and solely with the name to the immediate heir. As we accepted the right of inheriting family names, and through usage the right to bear armes jointly, naturally it follows that the right still exists, only ending when all branches of the house are extinct. In fact the right cannot be vacated by disuse on the part of a family in the line of descent, as is often the case, and any generation after, first establishing the right by connecting the lineage thus broken, can claim and bear the coat-of-armes.” The above is somewhat abridged from Mortimer Delano, Pursuivant of Armes, in VOGUE.

DODGE ARMS.

THE DODGE ARMS.

Very slight attention was given to this subject in the first volume because in my republican simplicity I had never thought it of much consequence, but it has so often been pressed upon my attention during my studies for the present volume that I am sure the Dodge Family will be gratified by the following information, for which I am indebted to the enterprise of Captain Charles Dodge, No. 873-ii, pp. 215, 406.

From Rev. S. Baring Gould to Charles Dodge, Jr.

Lew Trenchard, N. Devon, Eng., 9 May, 1895.

Dear Sir:—The Doidge family of this county came from Milton Abbott near [5 ms. n. w. of] Tavistock [on river Tavy, 16½ ms. n. of Plymouth] where they were tenants of the abots of Tavistock in Henry VI's reign [1485-1509], they occupied a fine old house, Coombe, not their own but subject to the Duke of Bedford. They got reduced at the beginning of this century & were dispersed. The ante-penultimate Duke pulled Coombe down. Somewhere about 1750-80 this [Duke] had Hurditch in Larneston [parish], and the shield in the arms in plaster was over the doorway. Hurditch has been rebuilt but the present owner, R. Mushead, Esq., has the original plaster cast. The arms are the same as those you describe.

The representative of the Doidges now is a surgeon, Mr. Maurice Doidge, who has I believe some mementos of the family, old plate &c, but he does not know anything of the pedigree. He was at Lifton [4 ms. e. of Launceston] but has left. His address now is Elmhurst, Haverhill, Suffolk.

There are a number of Doidges, farmers & laborers in this neighborhood. Farmers of this name still in Milton Abbott. The name hereabout is spelled Doidge, but pronounced Dodge.

There is a Maurice Doidge in Larneston p'sh, N. Tavistock yeoman, owner of Woodley which has been in the Doidge possession for some centuries.

I remain yours truly,

S. BARING GOULD.

Dear Sir:—I shall be most pleased to do anything I can for you in the matter of the Coat of Arms but the same is much worn by exposure and I scarcely think it would be worth photographing.

I am leaving home today for a couple of weeks and on my return will see Mr. Baring Gould and get his opinion on the matter I will then write you again. Please excuse haste.

Yours truly,

Elmhurst, Haverhill, Suffolk, England,

July 21, 1895.

My dear Sir:—I must ask your pardon for my delay in answering your letter. I have been much from home of late and my time has been fully occupied. I am much interested to hear of an American branch of the family, for such no doubt yours is.

I fear that my information as to the family is very meagre. I have never had time to thoroughly investigate the subject: certainly I claim the right to the use of the arms. The Devonshire Doidges have always used them for the past two centuries and I have believed ours to be really the only direct line of Doidges left, for the name is very rare in England—the other form of it—Dodge—your form is much more common in the States, I fancy than in England. You will see from the slip I enclose (which I use for pasting inside any books I value) what the arms are. You will also see from the head of this sheet of paper that we—I mean many generations past—have been in the habit of using the crest, as is the custom in this country. I do not think the crest is quite correctly described in the account you quote of it in Mr. Tupper's letter; it should be called a "demi-sea dog" not "sea-lion", so I have always been told. I have records of the Doidges being seated at Milton Abbot, near Tavistock in West Devon for more than two centuries past; really they have been in that neighborhood it is almost certain for over three centuries if not four; but I have no precise date earlier than 1655. From this you will see that I cannot tell you anything of William of Somersetshire who was the founder of the American branch. But in all the old county histories of Devon, and Cornwall also, (parish of Stoke, Clairsland) there are notes of a gentle family of this name residing in West Devon for centuries past. At one time they held considerable properties in that part of the county of Devon. I have a photograph of the manor-house of Hurlditch in the parish of Larneston, near Tavistock, with the arms of Doidge over the chief entrance; this place belonged to the family in the early part of the last century and has been pulled down to be rebuilt within the last few years. The present owner who has built the new house, sent me the photo. of the old one. There was also Coombe House, in Milton Abbot, Devon, which I saw once, and which was pulled down about 30 years ago. This was a fine old house and, with an estate round it, had belonged to the Doidges till sold to the Duke of Bedford on the death of Maurice Doidge, my grandfather's grand uncle; the house had stood and belonged to the Doidges (according to Mr. Baring Gould) since Elizabeth's time.

How the family got into Devonshire I do not know, but certainly they spring from the Cheshire family, the founder of which was Peter Doidge of Stopworth to whom Edward I granted the arms we now bear in the year 1273 (April 8 is the exact date of the grant) (not 1305).

I have never heard the connection of the Devon branch with the original family of Cheshire traced; but it is the same family, and evidently from the arms the Norfolk and Kent families were also descendants of the Cheshire stock. These two branches in Norfolk and Kent appear to be extinct. Doubtless the Somersetshire family from whom you trace descent had emigrated from the adjoining county of Devon—I do not know that any Doidges are now found in Somerset. Do you happen to know in what parish of that county the death of John Doidge, the father of William of Salem, is registered? If so I should much like to know.

I have a few bits of old plate in my possession, but none dating back to the date of the emigration to America. I have two fine old silver tankards, one bearing date 1707 and the initials H. D.; another of almost exactly the same date (as the marks show) bearing the arms of Doidge; a smaller one bearing the date 1720, and also a few old spoons bearing either crest or initials, the oldest of which is 16—. I have also in my possession the official seal of Richard Doidge who was High Sheriff of Devon in 1771 (an office of great dignity in England). I do not know if a photo. of any of these things would interest you as you ask me for photographs of family possessions; if so, of course it will give me pleasure to obtain one and send to you. I wish it was in my power to tell you more of the Cheshire Doidges from whom we both spring. I have often thought of going into Cheshire to endeavor to trace the family, but have never had the time to spare for what is a long and troublesome search. But if the small amount of information I have been able to give you is of the slightest interest to you I am very glad to have been able to do it. Believe me to be

My dear Sir,

Very faithfully yours, MAURICE J. DOIDGE.

Glastonbury, Somerset, England.

March 15, 1896.

My dear Sir:—I greatly regret leaving your last letter so long unanswered, but my time has been very fully occupied. I have been compelled to shift my quarters from the county of Suffolk to this place, thus returning once more to the West of England. I find that Chinnock, of which you speak, is not very far distant from Glastonbury and I hope one day to be able to go there and perhaps I may collect any interesting item of news relative to your branch of the family; if so I will not fail to communicate them to you. I find that the name Dodge is still known in this immediate neighborhood, so that evidently it has lingered in this part of Somerset since the emigration of William in the 17th century. I can only answer your question as to the spelling of the name by telling you that so far as I know it has always been spelt in that way by the West Devon branch: in some old county histories & books of that sort dating some centuries back you will find the family mentioned as that of "Doidge or Dodge."

The translation of the motto "Leni perfruar otio" is "let me enjoy gentle ease." So many of the family have acted thoroughly on the motto that the last few generations have not enjoyed any of the ease due to the possession of property as it has long ago disappeared.

St. Badaeux, the place in Devonshire which you mention, is not far distant from Tavistock, both being in the western part of the county.—so no doubt can exist of the Devonshire origin of the Somersetshire Doidges. The photographs of the silver plate represent four silver tankards, the earliest of Queen Anne's time,—the seal is that of Richard Doidge who was High Sheriff of Devon in the last century sometime, and the largest of the three tankards also belonged to him and bears on it the arms of Doidge impaled with those of some other family, probably his wife's. These things of course are of no interest to any one else but from the tone of your letter they will, I am sure, possess some interest for you.

I have to thank you very much for the volume you sent me, the pedigree of the American Dodges which is of course of much interest to me. I hope that some day you will be able to carry out your desire to visit the old country, in which case pray remember that Glastonbury is in itself a most interesting town, and that you will not be without a welcome if you pay it a visit. I am, my dear Sir, faithfully and sincerely yours,

MAURICE J. DOIDGE.

SECOND BEVERLY CHURCH.

The remodeled edifice of the North Beverly Congregational Society, which was re-dedicated a few evenings ago, is 184 years old, and is the first and only house of worship the society has ever had. When the society was first organized it was as "a precinct of Salem and Beverly." It was in November, 1713, that the first meeting of the Society was held, and a building committee appointed. The edifice was built and dedicated in 1714. It was originally 50 by 40 feet in size. Fifty-seven years after it was built a porch was added to the front end by Caleb Dodge. The steeple was built in 1751 and in 1753 a bell was presented by Robert Hooper. In 1837 the building was removed to its present site. For many years the ceiling was not plastered, but later in the century some of the wealthy parishioners had spaces over their own pews covered. When Robert Hooper gave the bell to the society he was given a free pew, and it was then that the whole ceiling was plastered.

At the time General Gates was stationed in Danvers, and was residing in the Collins house, he attended services in the old North Beverly Church.

RICHARD THE EMIGRANT

Probably had a house where No. 342, Dodge St., was in 1894. Mr. Issacher Lefavour, b. in 1816, says Dea. Richard Dodge, who purchased the farm of Jacob Edwards in 1819, moved a portion of the old house away, tore the remainder down and built a new house on the same site in 1830, which since 1894 has been removed to the south side of the street and remodeled by Mr. George R. Wales.

THIRD GENERATION.

Dea. Thomas Low of Chebacco in Ipswich married Martha Boreman (now Boardman), see Boardman Genealogy, 1895, where her ancestry is given five generations earlier. Martha was born in 1641 and d. 12 April, 1712, in Ipswich. Of their children

MARTHA LOW, b. —; m. Richard Dodge, No. 34.

JOANNA LOW, b. —; m. 1699, Antipas Dodge, No. 39.

JOSEPH³ DODGE, b. 14-Feb., 1670. In addition to what is given on pages 41 and 42 "D. F.," it is found in the minutes of the select men of Boston that Joseph Dodge at lower end of North St. was licensed to sell strong drink as "Inholder" on the 6 July, 1719. A similar license was granted to him at the "Salutation" 4 July, 1720, and at his house in Lin Street (probably now Commercial Street), 10 July, 1722, but 13 July, 1724, his application was disallowed as "unfit to hold such employment." In 1725 and 1727 his applications were disallowed, but July 4, 1729, a license was granted to him in Hanover Street "to sell strong drink as a retailer."

In the History of Nottingham, in Rockingham county, Joseph Dodge appears as one of 118 proprietors to whom a grant of that town was made 10 May, 1722. By deeds recorded at Exeter, N. H., it appears that Joseph Dodge of Scarborough, Co. of York, Jan. 1st, 1738, for £400 sold to Samuel Milliken, his son-in-law, and Martha, his wife., dau. of Joseph Dodge, his home lot of 10 acres with house, and 480 acres in Nottingham, N. H. On the 9th of August, 1739, Joseph Dodge, Sen., shipwright of Boston, sold to Benjamin Dodge and Joseph, Jr., of Boston, shipwrights, 10 acres with dwelling house on North Street and 453 acres in Nottingham, N. H. No wife's name appears on either deed.

FOURTH GENERATION.

JOHN⁴ who, on page 52, is said to have made his home in Wenham till 1757, appears to have removed to Brookfield in Worcester Co., for we find John Dodge, gentleman of Brookfield, bought 27 April, 1759, of Thos. Gilbert, gent., Exr. of Est. of Ebenezer How, for £33 6s. 8d. four pieces of land containing about 50 acres more or less, with buildings, in Brookfield. On the same date Thomas Dodge, cooper, of Brookfield, bought of the same grantor for £106 13s. 4d. "silver money" (the lawful paper money of that day was in bad credit) 50 acres more or less, with buildings. On the same date each of the above grantees gives a mortgage to their cousin, Francis Dodge, No. 66, to secure him as bondsman for £100 each. In Sept., 1763, Capt. John Dodge, gent. of Brookfield, for £50 6s. mortgaged to John Friend, gent. of Wenham, 40 acres and a house. The land was bounded south on Thomas Dodge. In March, 1767, John Dodge, gent., renews the mortgage of the same land for the larger amount of £117 14s. and his wife, Ruth, signed the mortgage. See No. 191, Thomas⁵ Dodge.

NICHOLAS DODGE. In Dec., 1775, he bought of Edward Aiken 230 acres in Londonderry, N. H., and in December, 1778, he sold or gave to his son, Nicholas Dodge, Jr., blacksmith, part of his farm and parts of his buildings in lieu of two shares of his estate.

104

NOWELL DODGE in 1763, his wife, Prissilla, and his children, Joseph, Sarah, Hannah, Deborah and Delileth, lately come from Groton, were "warned" out of Westford. In Sept., 1764, Nowell Dodge, Jr., Martha, his wife, and Elizabeth Dodge of Littleton were "warned" out of Westford. By the records of deeds he was a resident of Townsend from April, 1769, or before till his death. The probate records of Middlesex Co. show that Elijah Dodge of Townsend was appointed 20 September, 1781, administrator of the Estate of Nowell Dodge, cooper, late of Townsend, deceased. His estate was very small. On the 8 October, 1779, he had deeded to his son Elijah, a cooper, for £1000 27 acres with buildings. From the above it is not probable that he rem. to Duchess Co., N. Y. See p. 37.

JAMES⁴ (Daniel,³ Richard, Richard), baptized in Wenham, 1 November, 1713, and named in the will of his father, Daniel. He died 24 November, 1759, aged 46 years, per g. s. on Copp's Hill, Boston.

July 19, 1773, commissioners appointed for that purpose appraised the damages for taking from the estate of James Dodge, deceased, 14 feet 6 inches in length, including half a private alley, by 6 feet in depth, for enlarging "Paddy's Alley" and forming New Street, and awarded 3 pounds.

By the 24th Report of the Boston Record Commission we find that James and Mary Dodge had the following children:

- i. MARY, b. 27 Feb., 1733.
- ii. JOANNA, b. 27 Feb., 1740.
- iii. JAMES, b. 3 May, 1743. By g. s. on Copp's Hill, it appears that Mrs. Nabby, wife of Capt. James Dodge, d. 28 March, 1796, age 25 years, but it is not certain that Capt. James was the one who was born in 1743, though probable.
- iv. SARAH, b. 26 March, 1747, d. 14 May, 1748, age 13 months, per g. s. on Copp's Hill, Boston.
- v. EBENEZER, b. 17 July, 1749.
- vi. DANIEL, b. 21 Aug., 1751, d. 28 Sept., 1752, age 1 y., per g. s. on Copp's Hill.
- vii. SARAH, bap. 22 July, 1753, by Rev. Samuel Cooper.

DAVID⁴ DODGE (Antipas,³ Samuel, Richard), see p. 77, probably continued a resident of Haverhill till 1748 or 9. Bought a lot and built a house at Penacook, 1726-1731. While a res. of Hampstead, N. H., he bought July, 1750, for £150 13s. 4d. 100 acres in Londonderry with house and barn, adjacent to James Legate. March 7, 1753, he bought for £140, o. t. in Goffstown 100 acres S. of Purscatosquog river, Antipas Dodge being one of two witnesses. He next became a res. of Londonderry, where he died 10 October, 1763, and was probably buried in East Derry where a g. s. says, "aged 42", which may be an error in copying. The probate records of that county show that 26 October, 1763, letters of administration of the estate of David Dodge, late of Londonderry, deceased, were granted to his son, David Dodge, who gave bond. An inventory of his estate showed that it amounted to £16,663, of which, real estate in Londonderry was valued at £6,500 and in Sandown at £3,000. Notes at interest were valued at £3,643. In May, 1760, David Dodge and his wife Martha conveyed to their son, Antipas Dodge of Goffstown, 100 acres in Goffstown which he had bought in March, 1753. His wife Martha had signed a deed in 1743; and in 1772, as a widow, received from her son, James Dodge, a deed of 12 acres in Sandown, where they then resided. In April, 1774, she signed a deed, with Parker Dodge, to Samuel Dodge, all of Londonderry, of land in L'y. Date of her death not learned. Children who survived infancy:

- iii. MARY, b. 7 March, 1734-5; probably m. Wm. Stevens of Hampstead.
412. iv. ANTIPAS, b. 5 March, 1737-8; res. Goffstown in 1760.
413. v. DAVID, b. 29 Sept., 1740; res. in Sandown 1767-1772.
414. vi. SAMUEL, b. 13 Sept., 1743; m. (1) Agnes. (2) Mehitabel.
415. vii. PARKER, b. 3 May, 1747; in Haverhill, Mass.
- 415b. viii. JAMES, shown by deeds to be a son of No. 139.

EDNER or EDNA DODGE, dau. of William, see p. 79, born 1769, m. (1) Capt. Israel Dean in 1789. He died in Hamilton in 1795, age 33. One dau., Edna Dean, was born in 1791. The widow m. (2) in 1796 Lieut. John Proctor of Manchester, Mass., and rem. to Henniker, N. H.

JOSEPH⁴ (Joseph,³ Joseph, Richard), b. in Beverly 2 April, 1700, bought for £40 13 March, 1729-30, while a resident of Lunenburg, of Josiah Willard of Lunenburg 45 acres, house lot No. 54 near East Side of town, to which David Gould and Noah Dodge were witnesses. On 4 Dec., 1738, he sold for £150, 52 acres in Lunenburg, bounded E. on John Swan, S. on Maj. Jona. Hubbard and Jethro Wheeler, and N. on highway.

Joseph Dodge and widow Mary Irvine, both of Groton (part of Groton was in 1753 set off as District of Shirley), were married 21 Feb., 1742-3 by Rev. Caleb Trowbridge. The birth of their children has not been ascertained. In 1747 he signed a petition for division of the town of Groton. By the probate records of Middlesex county it appears that in the spring of 1753 Joseph Dodge became "crazy" and Moses Ritter of Lunenburg and prob. father-in-law of Joseph⁵ was appointed guardian. About January, 1763, Moses Ritter died, and in May following, Noah Dodge of Lunenburg, brother of Joseph, addressed a letter to the judge of probate at Cambridge reciting the above facts, and this letter is still on file. Soon after this letter was written, on recommendation of the selectmen of Shirley and of Mary Dodge, the wife of Joseph, Noah Dodge was appointed guardian.

No mention is made of any children in the above records but other records show that they had a son Joseph⁵.

ELIJAH DODGE, see p. 84, died in Winchester, N. H., 3 February, 1777, in his 68th year, and his "widow, Dorcas Dodge, died 16 January, 1810, aged 101 years," or more exactly 100 years 8 mo. 17 ds., as shown by gravestones in the cemetery about a half mile east of the church and town hall in Winchester.

Dorcas (Brown) Dodge was granddaughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Brown of Reading, Mass. He died about June, 1708, leaving children, viz.:

- i. Nicholas (executor).
- ii. Joseph, Jr. (executor); m. Dorcas.
- iii. Thomas, feltmonger, Newport, R. I., in 1719.
- iv. Ebenezer, d. 1719; without children.
- v. Elizabeth, m. John Wesson.
- vi. Hepzabith, b. 1692.
- vii. Tabitha.

Joseph, Jr., died in Reading, in prosperous circumstances, probably in Oct., 1723, leaving wife Dorcas who became administratrix, and the following children:

- i. Dorcas, b. 30 April, 1709; d. 16 Jan., 1810.
- ii. Elizabeth, b. 1711-12; m. Daniel Dodge No. 173.
- iii. Abigail, b. 1717-18.
- iv. Hepzibah, b. 1721-2.

FIFTH GENERATION.

THOMAS⁵ (John,⁴ John, John, William), was born in Wenham, 7 September, 1724. Was a cooper, and first appears on the records of Worcester Co. in April, 1759. See No. 60. Wife's name was Mary. Children:

ABRAHAM⁵ (John,⁴ John, John, William), was born in Wenham, 18 March, 1729-30, and died at New Marlborough, Mass., 6 September, 1810, per g. s. He was published for marriage to Elizabeth Warren, both of Wenham, 27 March, 1752, by Wenham records. She is said by a descendant to have been a sister or a niece of Gen. Joseph Warren. The records of Essex and Worcester counties fail to show that he owned land in either county but he was a resident of Brookfield in 1770, when the probate court of Worcester county appointed Jonathan Dodge of Ipswich guardian of his children, as named below. The file of papers in the case does not call Abraham, deceased, nor does it disclose the reason for a guardian being appointed. A descendant says he was a "trooper" in the Revolutionary war. This is confirmed by the Rev'y Archives of Mass., which show that he served in Capt. Enoch Noble's Co. from 29 June to 21 July, 1777, and from 21 July till 15 August, 1777, in Capt. John King's Co. His age at that time was 47 years. He was a farmer and probably moved to New Marlboro' between 1770 and 1776. The appointment of a guardian for his children would indicate that his wife was dead at that time. Children:

- 493k. i. JOHN,⁶ b. 10 Oct., 1754; probably at Wenham or Brookfield.
 ii. HANNAH, b. 10 April, 1756; m. (1) Mr. Olds of Brookfield, (2) Thompson Rawson.
 iii. ELIZABETH, b. 3 June, 1758; m. Zenas Wheeler, gent. ' of New Marlboro' who conveyed to her brother, John, 7 Sept., 1776, for £35, 60 acres of land in lot 250, 3d division.

FRANCIS⁵ (Francis,⁴ Jonathan, John, William), b. 26 Jan., 1730-1; d. at Sandisfield, Berkshire Co., 2 April, 1821, leaving no widow. He probably remained on the same farm from 1772 till his death. His wife's name was Deborah. — in 1783. Children:

- i. DEBORAH, d. before Dec., 1809 m. — Pease. Ch'n:
1. Elam Pease, inherited 49 ac. in Sandisfield.
2. Isaac Pease, inherited part of farm of Francis Dodge, No. 195.
3. Elijah Pease, res. in Ulysses, N. Y.; inherited 9½ ac. of farm of Francis Dodge.
4. Elisha Pease, inherited one dollar from his grandfather.

DANIEL⁵ (Francis,⁴ Jonathan, John, William), was born 23 May, 1745, in Brookfield, Mass. In the records of colonial wars his name appears as a private under Capt. Thomas Cowdin, serving from 18 March, 1762, till Nov. 12th, 8 mo. 16 ds. At the Lexington alarm in 1775 he marched from Palmer in Capt. David Speer's Co. and served 6 days. He moved to Palmer in 1774 and was there as late as 1784. In Temples History of Palmer, 1889, his wife's name is Sarah and his children are given as below:

- i. SARAH, b. 18 Feb., 1773.
- ii. BETTY, b. 9 July, 1775.
- iii. FANNY, b. 8 July, 1776.
- iv. LUCY, b. 4 Feb., 1778.
- v. DANIEL DANFORTH, b. 14 June, 1779. In July, 1829, his res. was at Middleburg, Schoharie Co., N. Y., and he sold a village lot of one-fourth acre in Johnstown to Eli Pierson of J. for $65. His wife's name was Cornelia.
- vi. NABBY, b. 28 Aug., 1780.

JONATHAN⁵ DODGE, see p. 88, was short, with dark complexion and black hair, quick and active in his movements, and somewhat severe in his ideas of youthful discipline. Hospitality was to him a virtue and he governed his house accordingly. His wife was a beautiful woman and at her marriage went with her husband to live in the house where they spent the remainder of their long lives. The house still remains. In front of the house the land slopes gently downward and is bordered by rows of willows separating the highway from the Asbury camp meeting grounds. A pine tree planted by Jonathan's wife still stands near the spring. Mrs. Dodge had an extraordinary memory until her ninety-first year, when she had a severe typhoid fever, the first and only sickness of her life in which she took a physician's medicine. After an unexpected recovery her memory returned as good as before and so continued until her death. They were both religious people. After Mrs. Dodge became too infirm to ride, local prayer meetings were held at her house, conducted by Rev. James B. Felt, the resident pastor, a warm friend of Mrs. Dodge, and from whom he derived much of his information used in compiling his history of Ipswich, a book of great value for its early records. She died suddenly of paralysis at the age of 94. For years she had been unable to walk upright, being so bowed over as to support herself by one hand on her knee, yet with all the infirmities of age she greatly delighted in the society of the young.

At the time of the death of Jonathan Dodge his descendants held about 2,000 acres of the best land in Hamilton, and their descendants have about the same amount today.

JOSHUA⁵ (Joshua,⁴ Joshua, William, William), born at N. Beverly, 24 August, 1721, did not die at Danvers as stated on p. 56. According to family tradition he removed to Brimfield and there resided till he removed to Rowe, where he died 7 August, 1817, aged 95, by town record.

The earliest deed to Joshua Dodge of Dudley of land in S. Brimfield is dated 19 April, 1765, and conveys 150 acres for £250 "lawful money." But there is a deed in Worcester county from Joshua Dodge of Dudley of 150 acres in Charlton, dated 25 April, 1764, conveying a dwelling house. No deed is on record showing when he bought the place, nor do the town records of Dudley show the births of any of his children. Joshua Dodge, miller, and his w., Margaret, of S.

Brimfield deeded to Joseph Munger of the same place, 3 April, 1776, for £214 112 acres, "all he owns on which he used to live." On 2 Feb., 1780, Joshua Dodge, yeoman, bought of Benj. Newell of Monson, for £28 50 acres on both sides of the line between Brimfield and S. Brimfield, which he sold by deed of 3 July, 1789, to Nathan Porter for £30. His son Joshua had bought 11 June, 1784, 75 acres in Brimfield, which he sold to Nathan Porter 7 Oct., 1788. These deeds indicate the time when Joshua Dodge, Sen., left Brimfield. "Joshua Dodge³ m. Margaret Conant, both of Beverly, 17 Oct., 1743," dau. of Daniel,⁴ Lot,³ Lot,² Roger.¹ She was born 15 June, 1724, but the date of her death is not known. Beverly records show the baptisms of five of their children.

For family of EZEKIEL see page 150, where *William*⁵ should be omitted, making EZEKIEL of 5th generation. For 561 read 270.

AMOS⁵ (Amos,⁴ John, John, Richard), b. 27 Nov., 1714, d. in Windham, Conn., 5 April, 1796. From the notes of the will below, it is probable he left no children.

In probate records of Windham District, Conn., the will of Amos⁵ Dodge, dated 25 February, 1796, shows bequests to brothers Samuel and John and sisters Martha and Elizabeth, and to dau. of his bro. Zebulon, No. 283, who married — Bugbee. Peter Webb appointed executor 16 April, 1796. Martha Hebard, widow of Amos Dodge, appealed from probate 28 September, 1797.

JOHN⁵ (Amos,⁴ John, John, Richard), b. 14 June, 1724; m. 1750 Sary Morse, dau. of John and Sary Morse of Conn. (related to S. F. B. Morse). John d. 1797, his wife died 18 December, 1796. John Dodge, joiner of Woodstock, Conn., bought 3 August, 1770, 100 acres in [S. Brimfield] Winthrop Lead Mine farm. In Jan., 1779, he sold the same to Isaac Foster of S. Brimfield and bought 11 April, 1780, for £1,420 100 acres in Tyringham, Berkshire Co., which he sold to his son, Ozias, Jan. 3, 1792, for £140.

In his will, made July, 1797, proved 7 November, 1797, he made his son, Ozias, executor, and mentions his sons, Amos and Phineas, giving to the latter his wearing apparel and "Watson's body of divinity." To his dau., Lydia Rosebrook, he gave a square table and 3 chairs which he had bought of his son Phineas, and which P. had left with her when he removed from Lunenburg. He shows that his dau., Esther, had married William Foster, Mary had m. Thomas Gratton, Sarah had m. a Mr. Smith, and Hannah was single. His will confirms the verbal will of his wife Sarah, made shortly before her death.

By Vt. Historical Gazetteer, Solomon Dodge and John Templeton came to Montpelier in June, 1788, from Peterboro, N. H. In the spring of 1789 they came with their families. The Montpelier town records call his wife, Mary, and give the births of three sons.

The will of Solomon Dodge, late of Montpelier, was dated 1st Oct., 1825, and presented for probate 26 August, 1831. James and Nathan were executors. He gave his wife Mary all the household furniture, the use of the house and other property during life. ANDREW DODGE (see p. 105) appears to have moved from Ipswich to Woburn before September 29, 1771, with his wife, Mary, and four children, for the usual "notice" to new comers was served on them Feb. 17, 1772. Church records of Second Precinct show that Andrew, son of Andrew Dodge, was bapt. 29 Sept., 1771. Hence the date of his birth on p. 105 should read 1771 instead of 1772.

Woburn town records show that a son of Andrew Dodge died Sept. 12, 1781, 3 years old.

Andrew Dodge served in the Revolution from Woburn.

ELEANOR DODGE and Joseph Giddings, both of Ipswich, were pub. 9 Jan., 1768. They were ad. to church 2d precinct, Woburn, 26 May, 1771. He is said to have served in the Revolution from Woburn.

RICHARD⁵ DODGE. In addition to what is stated on page 110, it is shown by the record of deeds in Cheshire county, N. H., that Richard and Stephen Dodge of Charlton, Mass. (probably father and son), bought 24 Aug., 1796, of Robert Duncan, gentleman, of New Grantham, N. H., for 250 dollars, lot 32, first division of New Grantham, being 100 acres, the right of Theodore Atkinson. August 28, 1802, Richard and Stephen Dodge of New Grantham sold for 90 dollars to Richard Dodge, Jr., of New G. one half of lot 32 as above, and on the same date Richard Dodge, Jr., for 8 dollars, gave a life lease to Richard Dodge for twenty acres, which appears to have been reconveyed to Richard Dodge, Jr., on the 5th February, 1820, for 150 dollars. On the last occasion the town was called Grantham.

Mr. Ellis Dodge now living at Palmer, Mass. (see p. 168 "D. F."), says his grandfather, Richard, moved to Grantham in 1798 and that the rest of his sons and daughters followed him the next year, with their families and two unmarried sisters of his mother, Keziah (Ellis), viz., Dorothy and Olive Ellis. They moved with ox teams about 125 miles through the wilderness to an unbroken tract, where everything was to be done. Levi built near his father on his father's land, and his father remained on the same farm till his death. Richard and his two wives were buried in Grantham (or Croydon). The name of his second wife has not yet been ascertained.

THOMAS⁵ DODGE (Richard,⁴ Richard, Richard, Richard), b. probably in Sutton, Mass., in 1759, d. in Barre, Vt., 11 August, 1827, age 68 years, g. s. in Farwell Burying Ground. His first wife, Abigail, d. in Barre, 22 Feb., 1802, age 40, g. s. He m. (2). 10 July, 1802, Abigail Harper of Barre, b. at Brookfield, Mass., 11 Apr., 1761, who d. 22 March, 1804, age 43, per g. s. By his will, dated 1 March, 1833, presented in court 27 Oct., 1841, he was called "late of Monroe" [now Woodbury, Washington Co., Vt.]. He appointed his wife, Charlotte, executrix, but she declined to serve, and D. P. Thompson, of Montpelier, was appointed administrator. He probably left no children, because he "willed" all his personal property to his wife and the use of his real estate which, was to descend, after her death, to his brothers and sisters.
- ix. ELEAZER, b. in Barre, Vt., 26 Jan., 1802; d. 29 Oct., 1822, in his 21st year, but he was engaged in a brisk boot and shoe

NATHANIEL H.⁵ (Jacob,⁴ William, Richard, Richard), see p. 120, was born at Wenham 21 January, 1738-9. The record of deeds at Exeter, N. H., shows that Nathaniel H. Dodge, yeoman of Hampton Falls, N. H., bought of Jonathan Moulton and his wife, Abigail, 22 April, 1769, for £166 16s. lawful money, 9 ac. with one-half the corn mill, saw mill on Falls river, house and barn and 3 acres 108 rods lately owned by Capt. Jonathan Swett. He also bought of Wm. Potter, Jr., gent., and Jonathan Wiggin of Stratham, 5 February, 1770, for £220 l. m., 12 ac., one-half a corn mill, saw mill and dwelling house and 4 ac. near the river. Some fifteen other deeds in the next thirty years indicate his prosperity. He built in 1787 the house which is still occupied by his descendants. In the old cemetery at Hampton Falls we find two grave stones which read, Nathaniel H. Dodge died 13 April, 1830, age 93 (?)

Mrs. Sally Dodge died 20 September, 1793, and of their sons, John, Billy, Isaac, and Jacob, who d. 23 Oct.,

CALEB⁵ (Joshua,⁴ Antipas, Samuel, Richard), b. in Boston, 14 December, 1726. As his father removed to Brookfield in 1742-3, Caleb probably came with him. In 1754, Caleb and Joshua joined in a strong remonstrance against being kept in the First parish of Brookfield when they wished it divided. In the same year Caleb enlisted in Capt. Eleazer Melvin's Concord Co. for expedition to eastern frontier. In 1756 Caleb and Josiah of Brookfield, were privates in Capt. Obadiah Cooley's Co., from Sept. 20 to Nov. 24. In 1757 they were privates in Capt. Jacob Abbot's Co. that marched Aug. 9th, for relief of Fort William Henry which surrendered that day. They were too late and were probably out 16 days. In 1759, in Capt. Wm. Page's Hardwick Co., Crown Point expedition, the Brookfield men were, Sergt. Caleb Dodge and privates Jonathan and Josiah Dodge. Hist. N. Brookfield,

Mass., pp. 210 to 222. In July, 1756, he received from his father a deed of 55 acres in Brookfield, see pp. 75 & 76, ante, which he and his wife, Merriam, sold 1 Jan., 1760. Jan. 8, 1760, he bought of Shrimpton Hunt, not of Samuel Mixer, 59 acres of the Hunt farm which he sold to Samuel Mixer 7 July, 1768. This probably marks the time when he removed to Belchertown. On 22 May, 1772, he received from Aaron Skinner of Colchester, Ct., a deed of 100 acres in Belchertown, and in 1778, '79, '90, '92 he bought other pieces in B. In 1785 he bought of Edward Allen of Amherst, 20 acres on which Allen then lived, and in 1802 he and his w. Mariam, deeded the same to Joseph Robbins and Hosea Goodale, both of Amherst.

In June, 1805, he deeded to his son, Zebulon Dodge, six pieces of land in B., Zebulon giving him life lease for the same. In 1809 he bought in Hadley 1 acre with buildings which, by deed of 4 February, 1812, he conveyed for $1 to 5 of his sons, viz., Parker, Josiah, Cyrus, Warren and Daniel. The names of his daughters are unknown. Children:

DAVID⁵ (David,⁴ Antipas, Samuel, Richard), b. in Haverhill, Mass., 29 September, 1740. He was administrator of his father's estate in 1763. In April, 1768, he bought by quit claim deed of William Stevens, housewright of Hampstead, N. H., for £25 "lawful money" the land bought by David Dodge, deceased, of the proprietors of Londonderry, N. H. David Dodge and his brother, James, of Sandown. (parish), bought by quit claim deed, 18 Feb., 1772, all the interest of their brothers, Samuel and Parker Dodge, of Londonderry in the estate of their late father, David, deceased, for £155. On the same day David Dodge of Sandown and his wife, Marey, sold to James Dodge for £110 25 acres, more or less, it being "one half the land I live on" in the parish of Sandown. David Dodge of Hopkinton, N. H., 14 Oct., 1772, bought lots 43 and 45, 2d division, Claremont, N. H., for £45. David Dodge of Claremont, Cheshire Co., 20 Nov., 1773, quit claimed to Samuel Dodge, for £7 10s. his interest in his mother's thirds in Londonderry. Between the last date and December, 1786, David Dodge of Claremont, made ten different purchases of land in C. and down to May, 1793, he had made ten different sales, none of the grantors or grantees being Dodes except himself. One deed dated May 28, 1781, shows that he was a carpenter, and his wife's name at that time was Mary. A deed dated 1 June, 1791, shows that his wife's name at that time was Sebel Jane, and the deed conveys to Mary Belfield their interest in her dower in the estate of John Belfield, deceased. David Dodge, gent. of Claremont, 27 Sept., 1806, sold to Peter Dodge, yeoman of C., for 600 dollars, lot 18, being 50 acres, and 10.5 acres in C. and took a mortgage for 500 dollars on lot 18. The discharge of this mortgage was effected 23 March, 1809, by a deed from David Dodge of Tunbridge, Vt., to Peter Dodge of C. for 500 dollars, of lot 18, being 50 acres.

From N. H. State Papers, Vol. 16, we learn from "An Account of the Bounties and Hires given to Soldiers in the Continental Army and Militia during the late War by the Inhabitants of the Town of Claremont and by whom respectively paid," that David Dodge paid £14 10s. of a total sum of £1563 9s. 4d. paid by him and 52 others. The account was reported to the secretary of state of N. H. 27 Dec., 1787, by Ambrose Cossit, Bill Barnes and Nath'l Goss, selectmen of Claremont. David Dodge and Col. Benjamin Sumner were said to have been the two strongest men in Claremont. One or more illustrations of it have been preserved in the History of Claremont. He was a member of the Episcopal church and in 1794 was one of a committee of seven of that church to take into consideration a proposition made to that church by the Congregational people to join with them in having Mr. Whiting, a Congregational minister, for both the Congregationalists and Episcopalians. No agreement was made. June 17, 1892, Mr. Hiram G. Dodge of Madison, Wis., then 77 years of age, gave this account of his ancestry.

that his father was Peter Dodge, a millwright, youngest of a large family, born, 2 April, 1782, in Claremont, N. H., and had a brother, John, who died at Willsboro, Essex Co., N. Y. that his grandfather was born in Mass. and was very tall and was employed in building the first bridge over the Conn. river at Bellows Falls, which, from other sources, I learn was built in 1785 and owned by Col. Enoch Hale and called Hale's Bridge. By Mr. Dudley T. Chase of Claremont, N. H., we learn that his children were:

- 761g. i. EBENEZER, b. —, 1767; d. 3 Aug., 1816.
 761h. ii. JOHN, b. —; m. 8 March, 1792, Eunice Lawrence, gave a mortgage for $400 on 1.5 acres in Claremont in August, 1802, to Benj. Lawrence, Deerfield, Oneida Co., N. Y. John had bought the same land, 5. Aug., 1799, of J. Strowbridge and others for $120.

SAMUEL⁵ (David,⁴ (Antipas, see p. 77), was born 13 September, 1743, in Haverhill, Mass. All the known facts of his life are shown by deeds and probate records which locate him in Londonderry, N. H. His first wife was Agnes, perhaps, Kelsey. They were divorced in 1788 or '89 and he married (2) Mehitabel before September, 1792. This is the first case of divorce found in my researches. The will of Samuel Dodge, yeoman of Londonderry, was dated May 5, 1806, and approved August 19, 1807. He died 14 August, 1807, per g. s. in Londonderry grave yard. He gave his son, John, two-thirds of his property, his son, Joshua, one-sixth and to his son, Samuel, and dau., Sally Patten, one-twelfth each. John was made executor.

His widow, Mehitabel, was living 23 August, 1810. By the will of Joshua Dodge mentioned on page 76 I was led to believe that Samuel Dodge of Londonderry was son of Joshua, No. 137, but the proof from deeds and the will of Samuel is conclusive to my mind that the mistake was in the will of Joshua, which called those grandchildren who were really sons of a nephew. Children:

- i. JOHN, wheelwright, 1795.
 ii. JOSHUA, received deed of 80.5 ac., 4 March, 1788, from Samuel and his wife, Agnes.
 iii. SAMUEL.
 iv. SALLY, m. — Patten.
 v. DAVID LOW, named in the will, as probably dead.

PARKER⁵ DODGE (David,⁴ Antipas, Samuel, Richard), b. at Haverhill, Mass., 3 May, 1747. His father lived in Hampstead 1750 to 1753, m. 4 January, 1770, Mary⁵ Little (Thomas,⁴ George, Joseph).

Parker Dodge, a minor of Londonderry, bought of Robert Wallace of L., Oct. 19, 1767, for £39 12s., 14 acres in L. He also bought 24 Nov., 1773, for £17 2s., of Hugh Tallant and his wife Mary of Pelham (the latter probably sister of Parker) one-seventh of the land set off to Martha, wid. of David Dodge. He was still living in Londonderry 20 Oct., 1808, when he sold to Joseph Dodge of L., husbandman, for $1500, 1 piece of 80 acres joining land sold to his dau. Mary and one piece of 15 acres with buildings, except one-half his house. Children:

EDWARD DODGE (see p. 127) was born before March, 1753, as shown by his father's will. He was a revolutionary soldier as shown by Revolutionary Archives of Mass. and Pension Rolls. He bought 80 acres of land in Londonderry, N. H., 14 March, 1794, while still a resident of Beverly, per record of deeds. He died 11 December, 1833, aged 80, per Pension Roll. Children:

- i. MARY ENDICOTT, married Samuel Jackson, who was a zealous democrat and a great admirer of General Jackson, by whom he was appointed postmaster of Manchester, and for whom he named his youngest son. Their children were Samuel P., Lorenzo, Albert, Horace, and Andrew J.
- ii. EDWARD, b. 8 Oct., 1787, removed with his father to Washington, Vt., where he passed his days on the home farm.
- iii. GIDEON P., b. in 1792, was of a roving disposition, went to South America and, on account of the unsettled state of the country, was forced to remain there twenty-five years. He pursued a variety of occupations, was carpenter, stock raiser, and confidential clerk for a man of business. When entrusted by his employer with a large sum of money to carry some distance through a wild country, he assumed the disguise of a physician and was rather non-plussed at a native town when the women with babies came to him for medical treatment. He proved equal to the emergency and carried the money safely through. His family did not hear from him for years but his mother died in the faith that he would return.

With his sisters and brothers-in-law, he removed to Cannon City, Minn., in the spring of 1857, where he remained till his death.

- vi. REBECCA FITEPLACE, b. in 1802, removed with the family to Washington, Vt., in 1811. She m. there in 1839, Ezekiel Cheney, and remained there till after the death of her husband, who died in 1850.

In the winter of 1855-6 she visited the family of her brother, Nehemiah, at Cedar Hill, Pa., which was one of the great events of her life.

In 1857 or 8, she removed to Cannon City, Minn., in company with her oldest sister, Mrs. Jackson, and her youngest sister, Mrs. Carpenter, and their families. Here she owned a farm and was a famous cheese and butter maker. On the death of her youngest sister in 1874, she went to live with her nephew, Lorenzo Jackson, on a farm five miles from Faribault, in the township of Warsaw, and now resides with her grand-niece, Mrs. Charles Lippert, of Faribault, Minn. She is thought to be the last survivor of the sixth generation of the Dodge family. She retains her mental faculties remarkably well, takes a great interest in politics and is a strong republican. She has never been broken down by illness of any kind. She is still a great knitter, walks about the yard and does light work. She makes the Bible her daily study. She united with the Baptist church when she was twenty-four years of age and still remains firmly attached to the faith of her ancestors.

- viii. LOUISA P., married Elzevir Carpenter, lived a quiet christian life, was always in delicate health and died in Cannon City, in 1874. No children.

JOSEPH⁵ (Joseph,⁴ Joseph, Joseph, Richard), b. probably about 1747, in the part of Groton later called District of Shirley, while it was still part of Groton, Middlesex Co. He sold his property there in 1781 to Joshua Longley and probably removed at once to Hancock, N. H., where his name first appears on the town records 10 March, 1783. It was then voted that a portion of the [church] meetings for the ensuing year should be held at his house. He marched from Shirley on the Lexington alarm, as a corporal. He took a prominent part in town affairs, being town clerk and one of the selectmen for the years 1785-86. JOSEPH⁵ (Elijah,⁴ Joseph, Joseph, Richard). In addition to what is stated on pages 85 and 130, "Dodge Family," it appears on the authority of Mrs. Sarah Dodge Jones of Keene, N. H., that Joseph Dodge moved from Winchester to Stoddard, N. H., in 1772, on to a farm near "Center Pond, went into the Continental Army in the early part of the war and died at Philadelphia of small pox in 1782." December 1st, 1774, BENJAMIN⁶ DODGE (Ephraim,⁵ Benjamin,⁴ Ebenzer, John, Richard), b. in Beverly, Mass., 11 May, 1776, m. 14 October, 1799, Mary Veasey of Penobscot, Me., b. 5 July, 1775. Benjamin when young lived with his uncle, Baker, in Salem and learned the trade of shoemaker, at 21 went to Penobscot, Me., and worked for Col. Webber, a tanner. He next bought a farm in Brooksville, where he had a family of seven children and where he led a consistent and practical christian life. He joined the Cong. church in Penobscot in 1797 and contributed freely of his small means to religious purposes, his last subscription being twenty dollars towards founding Bangor Theological seminary, which was paid after his death. He died in Brooksville, 29 November, 1819, of disease of the liver.

His wife was thus left with seven children, a small farm and a debt of 200 dollars. She was a woman of great practical sense, a wise manager of her family, quiet and persevering, and a devoted christian. Her house was a missionaries' home and she lived to see two of her sons graduate from that Theological seminary which she helped to found by paying her husband's subscription after his death. After an uncommonly successful life in surmounting great difficulties with small means, supporting her family and paying the debt on the farm, she died at Brooksville, 30 July, 1867, aged 92 years and 25 days, and rests by the side of her husband. JOHN DODGE, son of Moses T., see under No. 389, was born in Sutton, Mass., 7 December, 1766, and has been traced to Sangerfield, Oneida Co., where the latest record evidence leaves him in 1810. Mr. Jay H. Dodge, a great grandson of Moses T., now living in Clinton, N. Y., says he has heard his father say that his uncle, John, had two adopted children, John and Susan Lee. I cannot avoid the presumption that the above John Dodge is the John Dodge on page 411, yet I must frankly confess that I cannot offer anything which could be dignified by the name of proof. Of those John Dodges born near enough to 1766-1771 to have fulfilled the other conditions each one that I know of is otherwise accounted for. John's birth, as given on p. 411, was determined by the opinion of a man who thought by his looks that he was 62 years old in 1833. Nothing is more common than to underestimate the age of such a man. If his wife died about 1820 it was not strange for him to leave his adopted children and his aged parents either on his land or near by and go to Ohio. What followed in Ohio was entirely natural and I quite confidently expect to yet find evidence to confirm my supposition. Hence JOHN S. will appear later under number 999. ℳ

BENJAMIN⁷ (Benjamin,⁶ Ephraim,⁵ Benjamin,⁴ Ebenzer, John, Richard), born in Brooksville, Me., November 12, 1818; losing his father when but a year old, he was brought up by his brave and gentle mother with such advantages as her slender means permitted, taking charge early of his mother's third of the farm. Until 18 years old he had only the advantage of a common school, alternating his farm labor with the study of the speller, arithmetic, grammar, geography, memorizing scripture lessons, Watt's hymns and the Assembly's catechism. The two winters following his 18th birthday, he attended Bluehill Academy, still working on the farm in the summer. At twenty he entered the Classical Institute at Bangor and later attended Philips Academy at Andover parts of two years, teaching winters. At 25 he entered Bangor Theological Seminary and graduated after a full course of three years, in 1847. Since 1847 and until 1884 his ministerial work was in Maine and Massachusetts. In October, 1884, being invited by the

Rev. Benjamin Dedge.

Rev. DeForest Benjamin Dedge.

Mrs. Abbe S. Dedge.

Miss Emma F. Dedge.

American Missionary Association to go as a missionary to the Highlanders and locate at Pleasant Hill, Cumberland Co., Tennessee, he accepted and began his labors immediately. In his engagement no mention was made of a school, but on exploring the field and finding only about one-tenth of the adults able to read, he was impressed with the need of a school as the foundation of any useful work.

In a letter of January, 1897, he says:

"We entered upon this work Oct. 1, 1834, with my wife, daughter and one teacher. Four times I have been to New England for help and had the entire personal oversight and planning of the first three buildings. The school has grown from forty to 225 students. My health has been good and I have never yet been obliged to use glasses, though 78 years old Nov. 12, 1896. All four of our school buildings are the property of the American Missionary Association, which furnishes the teachers and assumes the responsibility for the future welfare and success of Pleasant Hill Academy."

It would be intensely interesting to describe his work more in detail but this is not the place to do so. Who can measure the influence of his work upon generations yet unborn and to remotest time!

Benjamin Dodge married (1) 16 September, 1847, Elizabeth J. Carr of Bucksport, who died leaving three children. He married (2) June 13, 1859, Phebe S. Ellis of Castine, dau. of Charles Ellis, educated at Castine, and a teacher several years before marriage. In the missionary work in Tenn., she superintended the Sunday school for some years and in many other ways helped forward the christain work greatly.

The close of his career is told in The Advance of August 12, 1897: "On the morning of the fifth of July a stroke of paralysis laid him on his bed prostrate and speechless. Medical aid was summoned, but in 8 days he died." Children:

ELLIS⁷ DODGE (Levi,⁶ Richard,⁵ Richard,⁴ Richard, Richard, Richard), born at Croydon, N. H., 7 May, 1825, was left by the death of his father in December, 1835, without means of support and had to go to the home of his sister, Mrs. John Stockwell at Rumney, N. H. Before going he had to earn a pair of shoes, and in October, 1836, with 50 cents in his pocket for expenses, he started for Rumney on foot. The lunch his mother had provided and his scanty clothes were in a pack on his shoulder and he walked about 25 miles the first day without serious difficulty. The seriousness of his journey began to dawn upon him the next morning while eating his breakfast by the roadside, but he pushed on as well as he could and about the middle of the afternoon, a lady, noticing him as he passed, called to him to stop and made numerous friendly inquiries, after which she offered him a bowl of bread and milk which revived his strength and spirits and enabled him to complete his journey of 50 miles about 7 P. M. After living with his brother-in-law three years he engaged with a neighboring farmer for a year at $25, and to clothe himself. In December, 1840, his sister, Adeline, having just married William Dodge of Palmer, Mass., and visiting Rumney on their wedding trip, took him home with them to learn the carpenter's trade of his brother-in-law. He staid there till August, 1845, when he went to Troy, N. Y., and worked at his trade till 1 November, 1849. He then commenced work on the Rens. & Saratoga R. R., and after a year was made master car builder. After a few years he took the same position on the Albany, Northern R. R., at Albany. Next he worked for the Troy & Boston, at Troy, and in November, 1855, went to Brooklyn as master car builder for the Brooklyn City street railway company, where he remained till 1860, when he returned to Troy and for some years was employed in that vicinity in his former capacity. So that from 1849 till 1886 he was employed in connection with railroads, while in the mean time he took out four patents, viz.: on a wagon wheel hub, on hames for harness, on a self acting switch for street railway, and on an insulator chip.

About 1886 he came to Palmer and engaged in building until about 1892, when he went to Troy to build two miles of street railway from Waterford to Cohoes, completing a circuit. He now lives at Palmer.

JOHN S. DODGE, M. D., supposed to be the grandson of Moses T., No. 389, was the son of John and Sarah (Hollingsworth) Dodge, was born 28 August, 1826, at Gallipolis, Ohio. At the age of 8 he lost his father. At the age of 11 or 12 he attended a protracted meeting of the Methodist church at which he had himself baptized under the name most familiar to him, John Son. His father, being a wagon maker, moved, early in 1827, from Gallipolis to Newark, Ohio, where he engaged extensively in his business. Early in the spring of 1834 he closed up his business with a view of returning to his eastern home. In July he was attacked with pneumonia and died 8 August, 1834. His widow soon removed to Pittsburg, Pa., where her mother, one sister and two brothers, were living. In 1835 he was apprenticed to Mr. N. B. Mollineux to learn the business of engraving and job printing. In 1839 Mr. Mollineux and others bought a steamboat which plied between Natchez and Natchitoches, and Mr. Mollineux took the lad of 13 on the boat with him, where he remained about a year. On one of these trips, an old gentleman, observing the boy closely, inquired his name and being told it was Dodge, replied he thought so as he knew a family by that name in Massachusetts which he much resembled.

In the spring of 1840, John S. returned with Mr. Mollineux to Pittsburg, where he attended the public school about a year. On telling his mother of his meeting the old gentleman above mentioned, she informed him of his father's first marriage, but the details of the story have faded from memory. In the summer of 1841 Mr. Mollineux died and John S. went to St. Louis and engaged on another steamboat, bound for New Orleans. Steamboating was for many years his principal occupation, filling various positions—cabin boy, bar tender, proprietor of bar, steward and clerk. On his first trip with Mr. Mollineux in his fourteenth year, on the discharge of the steward, John S. was placed temporarily in charge and gave such satisfaction as to be continued in the position. Later he was one of three who commanded the largest salaries for that service. During the civil war he was general superintendent of the beef packing business of Frank Smith & Co., at Memphis, Tenn. He was offered a much larger salary by a rival firm, but his sense of honor caused him to remain where he was. He married (1) in 1852, Miss Catherine Clark, who died in 1863, leaving one son. In 1862 he was afflicted with chronic dysentery for about a year, which turned his attention to the study of medicine. Having completed his studies, he did not at first pay much attention to practice, being otherwise engaged, but after the close of the war he turned his attention to general practice, and in 1871 went to Alleghany City to live and was soon enjoying a good practice. In 1874 he married (2) Mrs. Perthana Jane, widow of Jonathan Beatty, Beaver county, Pa., who had two children, Ross J. and Mary A. Beatty. No issue from this union.

In 1883 Dr. Dodge became a specialist of rectal diseases, and in 1885 removed to Pittsburg, where he has continued to reside and to practice his special branch with signal success. His career has embraced many occupations and phases of business life and in all of them he has shown great tact, strict integrity, abundant self reliance and manual dexterity, with considerable mechanical genius. He has indeed fought a good fight in a real battle of life and in the face of great disadvantages. For the foregoing I am indebted to a much fuller account by his long time friend, R. E. Warner, M. D., which the exigency of space has compelled me to condense.

Only child, WILLIAM JAMES, b. 1857; died 1867.

JUDSON W. DODGE (see p. 274), passed his early life in Wenham, and "when a young man came to Danvers, where he engaged in the shoe business. In 1862, he enlisted in Co. K, 8th Regiment, under Capt. Allen, and served until the company was discharged. In August, 1864, he enlisted in Co. M, 3d Heavy Artillery, and was discharged in June, 1865. He was employed in the shoe business many years, but more recently was bookkeeper for H. H. Pillsbury, which position he held until his failing health compelled him to retire. Mr. Dodge was a member of Ward Post 90, G. A. R., in which organization he was deeply interested, and also of Waukewan tribe of Red Men, and Arcadian council, R. A.

Although passing his entire life in humble pursuits, at one time carrying on a small farm, and following his vocation at the shoe cutter's bench, he was a man of many marked characteristics. The purity of his character was every where apparant. He was the ideal of the upright private citizen, satisfied with the blessings and comforts which his own honest labor had won him, always ready with a kind word or token to help those in distress, and envying not the lot of those counted more fortunate in the eyes of the world. He died at his home on Lindall Hill, 20 September, 1896." Salem News of Sept. 21, 1896.

HON. JOSEPH A.⁷ (John,⁶ John,⁵ Ambrose,⁴ Samuel, Samuel, Richard), see p. 189, under No. 771, was born 1 May, 1818, in New Boston, N. H. His mother, Polly Dodge, was eldest dau. of John B. Dodge, page 144. He was educated in the schools of New Boston, and Hancock Academy, New London, working on his father's farm in the summer and teaching school in winter, till, in 1838, he entered the employ of the Boston & Lowell railroad as clerk in the freight depot in Boston, where he remained until the opening of the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad. Here was an opportunity for the growth of a man along with the growth of a railroad, and Mr. Dodge held various positions until he became successively, superintendent, director, and finally, general manager. He was particularly interested in the development of the White Mountain region, and early saw the possibilities of The Weirs as a popular summer resort. He enjoyed wide reputation as an able and popular railway manager, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of the community at large. Though not an office seeker he was elected to the legislature of New Hampshire in 1868-69-70, presidential elector in 1876, was appointed by Gov. Weston, a colonel on his staff in 1871, and for several years was a member of the democratic state committee. His efforts, united with others, secured the establishment of the State Normal School at Plymouth. His private charities were numerous but unostentatious. His health failing in 1882, he resigned his position and spent the winter in California where he purchased an estate. Returning to Plymouth in the spring he died at his home, 10 August, 1883. Mr. Dodge was married in 1843 to Mary A. Tewksbury of New Boston, a worthy and faithful wife. Children:

JOSEPH⁷ DODGE (Jessc,⁶ Jessc,⁵ Jonathan,⁴ Jonathan, Edward, Richard), born 15 May, 1812, in Whitestown, Oneida County, N. Y. As he grew to manhood he became very skillful and proficient as a millwright; and for more than forty years held a leading position among that craft in this country. He was in reality a mechanical engineer, though known among his neighbors as a millwright. Small mills were numerous in those days and were generally run by water power. To design and build such mills became his life work, in which he acquired that high degree of proficiency which made him capable of designing and carrying out every detail, not only of the building, but of all the machinery pertaining to it—from the great over-shot wheel that generated the power to the smallest pinion that communicated motion. His skill and accuracy became proverbial and the mills designed and built by him were scattered through New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Canada, and Colorado. During the later years of his life he was engaged in building railroad work, especially bridges, and was employed by Kennard and McHenry on the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad up to the time of its completion in 1864. In that year he crossed the plains from the Missouri river to Denver, in a stage coach, to superintend the building of a quartz mill for Kennard in Colorado. When this was completed he returned to his farm in Auburn, in 1866, never to undertake again difficult enterprises in distant places. That accuracy on which was based the excellence of his work also manifested itself in his character to such an extent that he never made a statement that was either inaccurate or untrue.

He married, in 1836, Hannah P. Canfield of Auburn, Geauga Co., O., born 7 December, 1818, in Canandaigua, N. Y. His family resided on a farm near Auburn, O., where he died in 1878. Children:

WILLIAM R.⁷ (Ebenezer,⁶ Ebenezer,⁵ Daniel,⁴ Joseph, Joseph, Richard), was b. 21 December, 1816, at Boonville, Oneida Co., N. Y., where he lived on a farm until he moved with his father, Ebenezer,⁶ in 1836, to the vicinity of Jackson, Michigan. He bought of his father, in 1841, the W. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 9, in the township of Blackman, five miles north of Jackson. A frame house had already been built, about four acres cleared and a small apple orchard set out. He married, 5th March, 1843, Caroline Emma Hoyt, who was born 4 December, 1823, near the village of Franklin Square, Onondaga Co., N. Y. Her mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Farrington. In a letter to her son, Charles K., she thus describes their start in life: "Your father and I went to the farm the day we were married. We had a fire place and cooked in kettles hanging on little hooks that hung on the crane. We baked in a tin baker before the fire and thought ourselves well off." This description, so significant to those familiar with the houses of the pioneers, will hardly be appreciated by those born in the last quarter of this century. One yoke of oxen did their part of the farm work on the few acres cleared, and the oak forest slowly gave place to orchards and cultivated fields. Later, 160 acres were added to the east side of the farm. In 1852, Mr. Dodge went to California and returned in 1854. In 1860 he went to Pike's Peak in the spring

WALTER E.⁷ (Ebenezer,⁶ Ebenezer,⁵ Daniel,⁴ Joseph, Joseph, Richard), was born at Boonville, N. Y., 11 April, 1821, on a farm. He went to Jackson, Mich., in 1836, and lived on a farm till 1842, when he went to Racine, Wis., and worked at the carpenter's trade. He married, 10 October, 1847, Eleanor C. Malone, who was born in Boston, Mass., 21 Feb., 1828, and died at St. George, Utah, 4 March, 1894. He crossed the "plains" in 1849, leaving in February, and reaching Coloma, Cal., in August, he "saw the first piece of gold found and the place where it was picked up." He worked for a while at mining with much success, reached San Francisco just before Christmas. He bought the Broadway House at Clark's Point, having 64 boarders who paid $16 per week. In the spring of 1850 he rented his boarding house at $250 per month and went to the mines where he prospered. Later he bought two blocks in Santa Clara and 160 acres of farm land and loaned money at high rates of interest. In his own words, "Now comes the turning point of my life so unfavorable. I joined the Mormons and it cost me a quarter million dollars to be a good saint." He bought lots in Salt Lake City and was going there but Brigham Young stopped the party at San Bernardino. He bought real estate there. How long he remained there is not clear, but in the fall of 1857 Brigham Young ordered them to Zion. Selling out at merely nominal prices, they started in December for Salt Lake City, and were two months in reaching Cedar City, Utah, before which time, Brigham Young had sent an order for them to settle in southern Utah. For the next three or four years he led an unsettled frontier life, disturbed first by fear of "Uncle Sam," and when that fear had passed, he went to Salt Lake City to make money and engaged in trade and transportation. Finally, about 1861, he moved to Santa Clara and in 1862, to St. George, in S. W. corner of Utah, where he has since lived. He was a leading, but somewhat headstrong, Mormon, until he was finally cut off from the church for reading a Spiritualistic paper. He is a sanguine Spiritualist and now finds himself in antagonism to a large Mormon community and is not liable to intellectual stagnation for the rest of his life. This is not the place to estimate his character, but I cannot help admire some of the traits which are manifest in his career of enterprise and turmoil. Children:

THOMAS H. DODGE. This opportunity should not be allowed to pass without an expression of my personal obligations to one who, though having no agency in inducing me to undertake this compilation, has been its most efficient supporter. His support has been practical both in form and purpose.

It would have been a case of misdirected effort to spend so much labor in compiling it if it was to go into but few hands. Through the foresight and liberality of Thomas H. Dodge, the first volume of this work has been placed in twenty public libraries and he will soon furnish a list of those libraries that he is to supply with second.

The Genealogy of the Dodge Family is thus made accessible to a great number of people and will aid many genealogists in their researches. He has also placed at my disposal his latest likeness which will have a special interest to the friends of this work. In saying thus much for one who has been blessed with abundant means and a generous spirit, I am not unmindful of those who, at the cost of some self-denial, have taken a less number of volumes, even a single copy, and have thus shown a most hearty interest in the history of the family. The names of such will be found in the list of subscribers. All have my most hearty thanks.

FLORENCE ADELAIDE⁸ (Issachar,⁷ Francis,⁶ Charles,⁵ John,⁴ Jonathan, John, William), was born in Francestown, N. H., in 1841. In early life she became a successful teacher and has since won much local celebrity as a writer of poetry. I quote from The Magazine of Poetry, Buffalo, 1894: "Her mother belonged to the Webster and Emerson families of southern New Hampshire. From her father Mrs. Atwood inherited a love of music amounting almost to a passion, and a deep reverence for the beautiful everywhere. Educated in the district school and in Francestown Academy, she early showed remarkable executive ability linked with unusual powers as a leader in whatever path she walked. These traits, combined with rare energy, early placed her in the front rank of the able school teachers of the day, and won for her merited approbation throughout the six years that she followed this vocation. Her first poem was published when she was ten years of age; since then she has written for her friends, her town and her state, whenever the occasion has demanded." She m., 4 February, 1864, Solomon Dodge Atwood of New Boston, N. H., son of Rev. John and Lydia (Dodge) Atwood. Lydia was dau. of Solomon and Elizabeth (Dodge) Dodge, and Elizabeth was dau. of Benjamin Dodge. See pages 129 and 227. Hence Mr. Atwood is able to trace his descent from Richard Dodge by two lines and is twice as much a Dodge as his wife. With such an ancestry it is not strange that Mr. Atwood should be a republican, a Christian and a man much relied on for public services. He has been postmaster at New Boston since Lincoln's first election excepting four years. He has long been a country merchant sharing with his native town its good and its evil fortune, especially the latter in a great fire. The family as a whole shows much musical ability and is active in church work. Children, all b. in New Boston:

JOHN WM.⁸ (Richard,⁷ John,⁶ Nathaniel H.,⁵ Jacob,⁴ William, Richard, Richard), b. 25 March, 1819, at Hampton Falls. Cancel all of No. 737, on page 182. He prepared for college at South Reading, Mass., and graduated from Brown University in 1839. He began the study of law at Exeter, N. H., with Gen. Gilman Marston, but later engaged in business, being for some years a member of the firm, Gilmore, Clapp and Co., of Concord, N. H. He became cashier of the Weare Bank of Hampton Falls, and was largely interested in Labrador fisheries, having a number of stations on that coast to which he was in the habit of sending fishing vessels each summer, and to which he himself took a yacht with excursionists later in the season. On one of these excursions he had as his guest the famous marine painter, William Bradford, and gave him his first glimpse of arctic scenery. During the war he was U. S. consul at St. Johns, Newfoundland. From 1867 until his death he was manager of the Mt. Washington railway, and when the Summit House was built he took a lease of it. He also owned the lease of the famous Hamilton Hotel at the Bermudas, where, on account of failing health, he passed the last two winters of his life.

At the death of his father in 1864, he established his residence in the old homestead, now occupied by his widow. This house was built in the colonial style by his great grandfather, Nathaniel Hubbard Dodge, probably in 1787. John W. Dodge was several times representative of his town in the legislature of N. H., and a justice of the peace. He gave much of his time to others and was so approachable and judicious that many of his neighbors were in the habit of consulting him in the settlement of their difficulties. He was of fine personal appearance, and by his genial manner won hosts of friends.

He married, 2 September, 1840, Miss Harriet Perkins Dunklee of Concord, N. H., a direct descendant of Captain Ebenezer Eastman, who was one of the first settlers of Concord. He died 3 June, 1875, while on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Walter Aiken of Franklin, N. H. Children:

HON. MARTIN^s DODGE, son of Joseph⁷ Dodge and Hannah (Canfield), see 1034f, was born in Auburn, Geauga county, Ohio, 27 May, 1851, where he received,

"The gift no future fate can harm
Of being born upon a farm."

Albert L. Dodge

During all the years of his boyhood he resided on his father's farm in Auburn, where his time was devoted to study in the common schools, work on the farm, and the acquisition of those mechanical arts in which his father was so highly skilled. Being the youngest son and the only one remaining at home, great responsibility was early placed upon him by reason of his father's absence. This developed self-reliance at an early age, both in thought and action. At seventeen he commenced to teach school during the winter term at the district school house, and for the next ten years taught at least one term each year,—the last two years being superintendent of a village graded school. In 1871 he entered Hiram College, where he studied four years, except the winter terms, and after that, one year in Buchtel College, Akron. At twenty-five he moved to Cleveland to pursue the study of law. He entered the Ohio State and Union Law College, and having studied the required two years, was admitted to the bar in 1877. After two years' practice in Cleveland he went to Burlingame, Kansas, returning in 1882 to Cleveland. For the following six years he was engaged in real estate and building operations, in which his mechanical knowledge added greatly to his success. For three years following he was business manager of the "Cleveland Sun and Voice."

In 1891 Mr. Dodge was elected to the House of Representatives of the 70th General Assembly of Ohio, and was re-elected for three consecutive terms, being one of the leaders on the republican side. While yet a member of the House of Representatives he was elected to the state Senate from the Cleveland district, and is still a member of the Ohio Senate, having had the longest legislative experience in the Ohio legislature of any member now in the Senate. In 1893 he was appointed by Hon. Wm. McKinley, then governor of Ohio, as president of the Ohio Road Commission, and in that capacity contributed an original proposition incorporated in the report of said commission, to the effect that inanimate power should be substituted for animal power as a means of transportation upon the common roads. In June of the same year the trustees of Hiram College conferred upon him the honorary degree of Master of Arts. In April, 1896, Governor Bushnell appointed him as one of the members of the commission to represent Ohio at the Mexican National Exposition.

Perhaps the most important public service rendered by Senator Dodge, has been in the cause of good roads and cheaper transportation. He has not only been the leader of that movement in Ohio, but has been a leader among leaders in America and stands for the most advanced thought in favor of newer and better and cheaper transportation.

He is not prone to go it blind
 Along the calf-paths of the mind,
 And work away from sun to sun
 To do what other men have done.

In 1893 he made the first report ever published by any government recommending the substitution of inanimate power for animal power for the purpose of transportation on the highways. In 1894 he made a speech before the National Road Conference at Asbury Park, N. J., advocating the substitution of inanimate power for animal power, which was afterward published by the United States government in Bulletin No. 10 of the agricultural department. In 1895 he contributed an article to the July number of the North American Review setting forth his views on the same subject, and in 1896 he made a speech before the Agricultural Society of Ohio in the Senate Chamber at Columbus, urging the beneficial result that would come from substituting inanimate power for animal power for transportation purposes on the highway, which has been published by the state. The following quotation is taken from Senator Dodge's article in the July number of the North American Review for 1895:

"I therefore advocate an important and far-reaching change in the manner of building country roads. My plan is to extend the street-car tracks from our cities out into the circumjacent territory a distance of thirty or forty miles, so that all the territory between centers of population sixty or eighty miles apart would be reached. Let these tracks be so made and laid that wagons and carriages propelled by horses may go upon them, as well as cars propelled by electricity or other inanimate power.

"It is already demonstrated that only one-eighteenth of the power is required to move a vehicle over a smooth steel track that would be required to move it over a gravel road, or one-eighth of what would be required to move it over the best pavement. When this important fact becomes generally known to the farmers, they will realize that it is a poor policy to promote the building of macadam roads when an equal outlay would provide a good steel track. When the track is once provided so that cars and carriages propelled by horses can also go upon the same tracks with cars propelled by electricity, the superiority of the inanimate power will be so apparent that horse-power will be quickly abandoned. And what we have seen in Cleveland and Columbus and other American cities we will see upon the country roads, namely: a complete substitution of electric power for horse power wherever the rails are laid.

Mrs. Martin Dodge.

"Heretofore the use of electric cars has been confined to carrying passengers, and the extension of the system has depended wholly upon private enterprise. This must be changed by enlarging the use to which the electric cars are put, and by supplementing private enterprise by a more liberal and enlightened public policy. There is no reason why the electric roads should not be carriers of freight as well as passengers, and especially of food products from the field to the market.

"It is not claimed that these electric roads could be built and maintained wholly out of the profits of the carrier, but that they should rest as a burden upon the benefited land area in the same way that other road improvements now rest. No better expenditure of public money could be made in the state of Ohio for road improvements than to build a system of electric roads connecting all the county seats with each other and with the great cities of the state. This could be done by the state or by the counties with state aid. And the roads when so built could be operated by leasing to lowest bidder or by taking toll for each vehicle, the same as the state now does from canal-boats.

"I have estimated the increased value of agricultural lands resulting from the decreased cost of transportation over steel rails by inanimate power, at $30 per acre. Observation to confirm this only waits upon experiment."

It was a matter of newspaper notoriety that in the late senatorial contest in Ohio, when it was found by the votes taken by the two houses separately, January 11, 1898, that the vote on joint ballot would stand 73 for Mr. Hanna, and 72 for the opposition, unless one or more votes could be detached from the support of Mr. Hanna, Senator Burke, acting as spokesman of the opposition, offered to Senator Dodge to throw the entire vote of the opposition to him if he would vote for himself, thus electing himself. To the credit of our kinsman this supreme appeal to his selfishness and ambition was wasted and Mr. Hanna was elected.

In 1886 Martin Dodge married Anna Merchant. Their children are as follows:

- i. DAPHNE, born Nov. 25, 1886.
- ii. ESTHER, born March 10, 1888.

"JOHN AUGUSTUS WILLIAMS, A. M., LL. D., formerly president of Daughters College, Harrodsburg, Ky., was born September 25, 1824, in Bourbon county, Kentucky. His father was Dr. Charles E. Williams, a native of Montgomery county, a physician of high standing, a man of scholarly attainments, who for many years was associated with his son in the management of the affairs of Daughters College, and who finally passed away in 1881. The mother of Prof. Williams was Arabella Dodge, daughter of [DAVID⁷ DODGE (Isaac,⁶ Eli,⁵ Josiah,⁴ Josiah, John, Richard)] one of the early merchants and manufacturers of Lexington, Ky. The Williams family is of Welsh extraction and according to family tradition, descendants of Roger Williams, of Providence, Rhode Island.

"Prof. Williams passed the opening years of his life at Paris, Bourbon county, where his earliest instruction was received, and at the age of fifteen entered Bacon College, then located at Georgetown, as a student. While in attendance at this institution it was removed to Harrodsburg, and subsequently became known as the Kentucky University, from which our subject graduated in 1843, under the presidency of Dr. James Shannon. He subsequently received the degree of A. M. from his Alma Mater, and later that of LL. D. from the Masonic University of La Grange, Ky. After leaving college he entered on the study of law with a view of adopting that profession, but was prevented from accomplishing that purpose by the development of a very decided taste for teaching and the discovery of serious needs in the educational system of the State. In 1848 he took charge of what was called Prospect

Hill Seminary, a boarding school for young ladies, and gentlemen near Mt. Sterling, an institution which became very prosperous under his management, and in which he obtained considerable distinction for his original methods and superior talents as a teacher. He soon after established a female college at North Middletown, in Bourbon county, known as the Bourbon Institute, in which he aimed to carry into full effect his advanced plans of education. In 1851 he was urged to and did establish his institution at Columbia, Missouri, the seat of Missouri University. A liberal charter was granted by the State, and under the designation of Christian College, it was formally organized in the spring of that year. His conduct of the school brought it into popular notice and universal popularity, filling it to overflowing with young ladies of the best families in the State. He presided over that institution until 1856, when ill health and a desire to return and labor in his native State induced him to resign. In that year he purchased, in connection with his father, the property at Harrodsburg, upon which is situated the celebrated Greenville Magnesian Springs, and established the Daughters College, which became one of the most successful institutions of its kind in the State. In 1865 President Williams was appointed to the chair of moral and mental philosophy in the Kentucky University, and afterwards to the presidency of the State College, and then to that of the College of Arts at Lexington. The State College was organized at Lexington in 1866, largely through the instrumentality of President Williams. The two former positions he accepted and filled, but declined the latter. In 1868 Prof. Williams resigned his position in the University at Lexington, and returned to his beloved pupils at Harrodsburg. Soon its halls were filled. He was one of the original movers in the organization of the State Teachers' Association, has contributed extensively to various literary and religious periodicals, and delivered many addresses. His life of Elder John Smith is a well known and standard volume. His most important work, however, will be the one on Christian Ethics, now in course of preparation. He has also occasionally been induced to occupy the pulpits of various churches, both in and out of his own denomination.

“He is a Mason of high degree, and of national reputation as a pleasant and orthodox expounder of the principles of the Order. While resting from his arduous professional labors he was induced to accept the Grand Lectureship for the State of Kentucky, which position he filled for two years with much profit to the Craft. He is a man of fine tastes, has a great fondness for poetry, literature and art; of genial and attractive presence, kindly nature and greatly esteemed and respected by his associates and pupils, as well as by the community at large. He was married in 1848 to Miss Mary L. Hathaway, daughter of Philip Hathaway, of Montgomery county, Ky., a representative of one of the early pioneer families of Virginia.—From The Kentucky Craftsman.

Mrs. Anah (Bathrick) Goss, having attained much greater age than any other known descendant of the Dodge family, will give interest to a part of the various notices furnished which relate thereto.

Milford correspondence:—In the neighboring town of Amherst, N. H., resides Mrs. Anah Goss, who is, probably, the oldest person in this part of the country. She was born Feb. 1st, 1770, and is, therefore, nearly one hundred and five years old. Her husband was a soldier in the Revolution, and of her eight children, she has outlived all but two; and she looks and appears nearly as young as her daughter of sixty, with whom she lives. She enjoys remarkably good health, can read and write by the aid of glasses, and seems to enjoy the presence of the large number of visitors who call upon her, with whom she converses quite freely. While she was writing her autograph for us to take home as a memento, for the autograph of a person of her age is a rara avis, her daughter told us that a lady who called upon her a few days before made the remark that she supposed she could not see to read, which Mrs. Goss quickly resented, and to show that her eyesight was still good, she picked up a newspaper and read a paragraph, and also sewed some, threading the needle herself. Those ignorant of her age would not take her to be over seventy, as she stands erect and has a fresh, young-looking countenance even for a person of that age.

Amherst, N. H., Feb. 1. 1874.

Visit to a centenarian:—The 104th birthday of Mrs. Anah Goss of this place occurred to-day, but your correspondent knowing her great regard for the strictest observance of the Sabbath, paid her a birthday visit on Saturday afternoon. We found her sitting quietly by the fire in an easy chair which she politely offered to vacate for us; her appearance being that of a "smart old lady of seventy," cheerful and happy. In conversation with her we found that her memory was good pertaining to events that transpired in her childhood and early womanhood, but failed to recall matters of recent date. In alluding to the snow storm, which at that time seemed undecided whether to yield to the sun or to continue in the mild way which had given us but three inches in twenty hours, she remarked that these storms were "not much like old-fashioned snow storms." She remembered one, some eighty-five years ago, "when her husband found the snow one morning above the top of the door, and nearly to the eaves of the house, and was obliged to tunnel through to the street." As an instance of her earliest recollections, she narrated very feelingly the circumstances of the death of her little brother, Stephen, ninty-eight years ago, she then being six years old and he some two years younger. She remarked that "the dear little fellow would refuse to take his medicine except sister Anah brought it to him." She also remembered the circumstance of the death of her father, which occurred away from home, of small-pox, when she was quite young. He desired to go home, and a horse was brought to him, and he mounted it, but was too weak to ride. She also remembers the collection of soldiers in 1775, as that year they marched so near her house with life and drum.

Some days ago she called her daughter, Mrs. Wilcox, who lives with her, and makes her every care and want her study, and said to her: "Now, Elizabeth, you know that my birthday this year comes on the Lord's day, and as His days are so much better than any of my days, I want you to write to our friends not to visit us on the Sabbath, but to come Saturday." Her daughter of course complied, quoting her mother's remarks, and the usual visit from friends upon the anniversary of her birth will occur probably to-morrow, the storm of Saturday preventing it then, among whom are ex-Mayor P. C. Cheney and wife of Manchester, Mrs. C. being a granddaughter of this venerable woman.

The health of Mrs. Goss seems good, generally speaking, but she is growing constantly weaker and more inclined to sleep, while her mind has failed considerably the past year. She reads the newspapers some, preferring those with large type, though we noticed upon her table the Weekly Journal. She does not approve of female suffrage, and says she should not consider herself old enough to vote if she was allowed so to do.

The Amherst Cabinet says: The 105th birthday of Mrs. Annah Goss of this town, now the oldest person in the State, was made the occasion of a family re-union on Monday, 1st. There were present, Mr. and Mrs. White, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Goss, aged 79 years; Mrs. Wilcox, a daughter who lives with Mrs. G.; Hon. Person C. Cheney and wife of Manchester, the latter a granddaughter; Josiah Laselle, Esq., and wife of Manchester, Mrs. L. being a granddaughter; and Miss Elizabeth Whitney of Boston, also a granddaughter. Mrs. Goss although gradually failing in mind and body, was able to be about the house and enjoy the visit of her friends. She sat at the table, saying grace, as is her usual custom. Her eyesight has failed considerably within the last year, so that she now reads nothing but her Bible, and occasionally the large type in the advertising columns of the papers.

Death of a Centenarian:—Mrs. Anah Goss, the oldest person in the state, died at Amherst, N. H., on Saturday morning, March 20, at the venerable age of one hundred and five years, one month and nineteen days. Her decease was neither sudden nor unexpected. Some three or four weeks since she took a cold which affected her lungs considerably, but it was hoped that she might recover from it, though it so prostrated her that she could not rally.

Mrs. Goss was the daughter of Stephen Bathrich of Lunenburg, Mass., where she was born Feb. 1, 1770. She came to Amherst in 1785, then being fifteen years of age, and one year later married Ephraim Goss, a soldier returned from the war, with whom she lived fifty-four years, till his decease in 1840, and by whom she had ten children, seven daughters and three sons, two daughters being still alive—Mrs. White of Manchester now being in her eightieth year, and Mrs. Wilcox, who has made her home with her mother, ministering to her wants in her declining years. Three granddaughters survive her, one the estimable wife of Hon. P. C. Cheney of Manchester, who for years has left nothing undone that would contribute to the comfort or pleasure of the deceased; Mrs. Josiah Laselle of Manchester, and Miss Elizabeth Whitney of Boston.

The deceased retained her faculties in a remarkable degree until within a year or two, since which time her memory failed her and also her eyesight, preventing her reading anything except her Bible, which she always made a daily study. She was for over four score years a member of the Congregational church in this town, and gave all her children to the Lord by baptism in their infancy. She was among the last Revolutionary pensioners in the country, her husband having been a fifer in that war.

JOSEPH T. DODGE. See p. 369.

In bringing to a close the long and arduous task of compiling this genealogy, I feel a profound sense of gratitude that my life has been prolonged to accomplish so great a work, that so many of the family have taken an active interest in, and aided the work, that the family may well be gratified that they have a record for patriotic and public services, which should always stimulate their descendants to still higher and nobler endeavors. To those correspondents who, within a few weeks past, have received no replies to their letters, I must plead physical inability from failing sight and strength to do what I desire to do, and I hope they will pardon my shortcoming. To my wife and youngest daughter I am under deep obligations for their assistance in completing the work.

At the same time that I bid you adieu, I introduce the ever interesting features of grandchildren in whom are centered the brightest hopes of parents and grandparents alike.
